

ISL-SF

Fall Meeting – “Libraries of the Future”

October 31, 2014

Agenda

- 8:30 – 9:00      Arrival, Refreshments, Introductions
Opening Remarks – Barbara Share, Ransom Everglades Middle
- 9:00 – 10:30      MakerSpaces & Libraries
Moderated by: Roxanne Trejos, Gulliver Preparatory
Presenters: John De Martin & Rafael Avial, St. Stephen's Episcopal School
FabLab @ St. Stephen's Episcopal School
Presenting via Skype: Jessica Simmons, Moreau Catholic Preparatory High School
Maker Lab @ MCHS Library Learning Commons
- 10:30 – 11:30      E-book Options, Implementation Plans, & Logistics, Etc.
Moderated by: Rebecca McRae, Westminster Christian
Presenters:
Eric Ballesteros presenting Questia @Palmer Trinity
Wendy Nordine presenting ProQuest's ebrary @The King's Academy
Meribeth Shank presenting Baker & Taylor's Axis 360 program @Miami Country Day
Rebecca McRae presenting OverDrive (MISBO discount access) @Westminster

Thank you for attending and participating in our meeting!

For contact information, articles, and links to resources presented at this meeting – please visit our libguide located at <http://gulliverschools.libguides.com/isl-sf2014fallmeeting>

Gulliver's Guest Web Access
username: gulliverguest
password: raider505

“My guess is (it will be) about 300 years until computers are as good as, say, your local reference library in search.” Craig Silverstein, Director of Technology, Google.com.

CBS, CBS Sunday Morning, March 28, 2004.