

How do I demonstrate that philosophical ideas apply to my life?

Part 1: Test on text material Tuesday, May 12th

Part 2: to be turned in and graded as class work/home work on Thursday, May 14th

- Create an illustrated flow chart/timeline of religions & philosophies studied this year
- You may use photographs/appropriate pictures .
- It may be handwritten or computer generated.

Part 3: Due, Thursday, May 21st Create an outline for the essay that you will write in class. The essay will be graded as a test. Outline to be turned in with the essay.

1. Write a 5 paragraph essay, IN CLASS, explaining how/why (supported by facts/evidence- no less than 3) (20 points) a favorite quote this year ties into your favorite philosophy (5 paragraph format & transition word use 15 points)
2. How do you demonstrate it in your daily life?(15 points)
3. Include the main ideas of the philosophy as part of the essay. (25 points)

You MUST clearly express the connection! (25 points)

Part 4: To be turned in/ presented during your 'final' period:

- Organize the year's quotes and your thoughts for each, which you should have written in class (all of them-24 minimum). To be graded as 5 bonus points on your essay test.
- Go over the year's WQs, choose a favorite
- Review all the philosophies studied this year, primarily from China & Greece, and choose one that 'speaks' to you.
- Create an advertisement (tv/radio {2 minutes max} or detailed print) for your 'favorite' philosophy.
- Explain, in 1 clear & concise (typed) paragraph, how/why the advertised philosophy relates to your favorite WQ.

Attached are the rubrics for the essay and the advertisement.
